Felsenmeer newsletter - week 49 / 2017

Corporate informations

Announcement of company holidays

An exciting year is coming to an end. We got to meet great people and respond to your needs. This resulted in great ideas and projects. From a single-user application to large-scale projects, all of them enriched our daily business.

We would like to say «thank you»

At the same time, we also announce our company holidays. The FELSENMEER team is absent from 23.12.2017 up to and including 07.01.2018.

You have the possibility to leave us a message after your phone call or to write an email request. We will contact you after our return on 08 January 2018.

Our office and accessibility times

We would also like to inform you about our slightly adapted office and accessibility times. These data are valid immediately. For non-urgent request please send us your request by e-mail. We will do our best to respond to your request within 24h.
